Special Lease Offer for BMW X1 at BMW of Watertown, CT

March 26, 2020

March 26, 2020 -
A lease offer on the BMW X1 has just been announced at BMW of Watertown in Connecticut -- monthly payments of $369 per month for 36 months (and $3,979 due at signing). Other special financing offers are available by inquiring directly to the dealership). Both the 2020 BMW X1 XDrive28i or sDrive28i are loaded with safety and technology features, however, only the XDrive28i is all-wheel drive. The X1 is known to be a new class of vehicles called Sports Activity Vehicles (SAVs) that have additional performance features and technology options that are more advanced than an SUV or sedan. Another advantage of the sports activity vehicle such as the new X1 is the gas mileage at 24 MPG in the city and 33 MPG on the highway.

An eight-speed STEPTRONIC transmission is installed for driver preference, which has the ability to toggle between automatic and manual shifting. Other standard features include eight airbags for safety, remote keyless entry, electronic stability control with anti-roll, speed sensitive volume, and additional security features. Brake assist and ventilated front and rear disc brakes are also incorporated for extra brake control.

BMW of Watertown has received numerous positive reviews over the years, including one that said, ?"I was very impressed on how I was treated even though I was purchasing one of the least expensive vehicles on the lot. Everyone treated me with respect..." Overall, very good car-buying experiences have been reported from the BMW of Watertown dealership.

With twelve different colors to choose from, and varying degrees of comfort or performance, the possibilities are endless with the new X1.
