Two MSN Lawyers Recognized As Top Attorneys By Birmingham Magazine

April 01, 2020

April 01, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Two attorneys from Massey, Stotser & Nichols, PC (MSN), a Birmingham, Alabama based law firm, were recently recognized by Birmingham Magazine as Top Attorneys. MSN would like to congratulate Anne Lamkin Durward and Spenser Templeton for this achievement. The magazine recently conducted its eleventh annual peer-reviewed survey and two attorneys from MSN stood out.

Partner Anne Lamkin Durward is from Birmingham, and graduated from Samford University's Cumberland School of Law after attending the Washington & Lee University in Lexington, VA. Anne was admitted to the Alabama Bar in 1995. She helped establish the Birmingham Bar Foundation Fellows Program and continues to be very active in numerous local and national bar organizations. She also coaches the National Moot Court Team with Cumberland School of Law. She is on the Board of Governors for the International Academy of Family Lawyers and is the President-Elect of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. Anne also has been recognized in Best Lawyers in America for a number of years. Anne practices in the areas of family law, probate law and general litigation.

Spenser Templeton is from Gadsden, Alabama and currently resides in the Trussville area with her husband,

Ryan, and son, Finn. Spenser holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Alabama. During her time at the University of Alabama, Templeton was a member of the Crimsonettes with the Million Dollar Band. She later attended the Cumberland School of Law at Samford University where she graduated in 2015 with her Juris Doctorate. Spenser coaches the Cumberland National Trial Team and volunteers her time mentoring young law students. Spenser is also active in the Birmingham Bar Association including, the Future Leaders Forum and serving on the board of the Women's Section. She has also been nominated as a Mid-South Super Lawyer. Read Spenser Templeton's bio on the firm's website. Spenser handles personal injury cases, general litigation and governmental matters.

Rick Stotser, Senior Partner with the firm says, "We are proud of Anne and Spenser for the outstanding work that has led to this honor from their peers. It is wonderful to see them recognized by others for what we have known all along."

MSN is also actively involved in a number of local organizations that serve to increase the bonds within the local community. The firm has, for example, supported the Trussville Area Chamber of Commerce by sponsoring an internship program that gives a high school student exposure to the inner workings of local businesses. The firm has also supported local schools by providing assistance for teacher education and by contributing to scholastic and athletic programs.
