

White Plains Personal Injury Attorneys Banville Law To Host Car Accident Webinar

April 01, 2020

April 01, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

White Plains, NY - Banville Law, a White Plains Personal Injury Attorneys, have announced the next date for one of their legal webinars.

On April 15th, 2020 at 9:30 p.m., our law firm will host a webinar. During this webinar one of our experienced attorneys will go over the various types of compensation that can be obtained through a personal injury lawsuit where one was injured in a car accident in White Plains, stated the firm's managing attorney, Mr. Laurence Banville.

The White Plains personal injury lawyers at Banville Law have an impressive history of successful outcomes for past clients and have represented thousands of White Plains residents. The legal team handles cases that involve bus, truck, and car accidents, construction accidents, work accidents, and slip and fall accidents.

We combine our experience, legal knowledge, and our deep passion for the law to fight for the maximum compensation possible for each individual client. In our years of practice, we've noticed that many clients don't even realize they have a case until a loved one advises them to speak to an attorney. We hope that by hosting these webinars, we can spread awareness about the rights of accident victims and others in White Plains, shared Mr. Banville.

In addition to working with accident victims, the law firm also assists victims of sexual assault, defective devices, and medical malpractice. Banville Law is also proud to represent injured workers in White Plains, helping with workers' compensation claims and appeals.

To sign up for the upcoming webinar, contact the law firm at info@banvillelaw.com.

The White Plains office location is: Banville Law 44 S Broadway #100, White Plains, NY 10601, USA. The law office can be reached by phone at (914) 228-1866.
