

Simpsons International Removals Launches New Service for Removals to UAE

April 09, 2020

Dartford, Kent - April 09, 2020 -
Simpsons International Removals Ltd, based in Dartford, Kent, UK, have revealed that they have launched a new service for removals to Dubai and the United Arab Emirates (UAE) for British and international expats who will be moving from the UK to UAE.

With the new service, moving to the UAE will not be difficult nor stressful, as Simpsons has many years of experience helping people with their international removal needs. They are able to handle all types of moves, from small removals and shipping boxes, to vehicles and complete household removals.

John Lee of Simpsons International Removals says, ?Overseas removals across miles of ocean to the United Arab Emirates are far more complicated than moving within the UK. But by using a specialist international removal company like Simpsons, you can be sure your household belongings and furniture are in safe hands.? He continues, ?We?ll be ready to help you move from the UK to UAE as soon as the current coronavirus situation is resolved.?

The removals service provided by Simpsons International Removals from the UK to Dubai and the UAE, is for household removals and shipping from UK to Dubai and the rest of the UAE. They are primarily geared towards British and international expatriates who will be moving from the UK to UAE. They are also aimed at UAE citizens who will be returning after working in London and the UK. While the most popular destinations will be Dubai and the capital Abu Dhabi, Simpsons will also be able to deliver to any of the Emirates.

With the Simpsons International Removals service, clients will be provided with a dedicated account manager, who will be taking care of all the requirements. Being a door to door service, Simpsons will take care of customs clearance. Simpsons also has a specialist vehicle shipping service and is therefore capable of shipping luxury cars from the UK to the UAE.

The cost of removals to the UAE will depend on the quantity of items and where in the Emirates the customer will be moving to. Fortunately, the cost of removals from the UK to the UAE is quite inexpensive, particularly for areas around the popular Emirates like Dubai and Abu Dhabi. Nevertheless, Simpsons will gladly deliver to all the Emirates, including Fujairah, Ajman, Sharjah, Ras Al Khaimah, and Umm Al Quwain.

Removals to the UAE will usually take three to five weeks for Simpsons? full container service and seven to 10 weeks for their part load service. These shipping times are for delivery to port, and there will be additional time for customs clearance upon arrival in the UAE.

Moving furniture from the UK to the UAE will require more care and attention than for a domestic move; each furniture piece will have to be carefully packed with export wrapping before putting into the shipping container. Nevertheless is it possible to take all kinds of furniture to the UAE, including chairs, sofas, cupboards and tables, as well as white goods such as fridges, freezers and washing machines.

With regards to insurance, Simpsons suggests that customers take out shipment protection cover for their peace of mind while their belongings are in transit. This is because, while the company has expert packers who specialise in international removals and utilise accredited shipping lines who can handle personal shipping containers, they will not be able to control every eventuality. Just as people in the UK have travel insurance and home contents insurance, it would be a good idea for customers to discuss with their move manager the possible alternatives for protecting their belongings while they are in transit.

People who are interested in international removals to UAE can check out the Simpsons International Removals website, or contact them by telephone or via email.
