In about twenty minutes they help their clients look flawless with a full body, chemical and UV free tan. With proper after-care the tan will outlast a day sunbathing in harmful UV rays or lying in melanoma causing tanning beds.

Melinda Dixon, Proprietor of TantrumMobileSprayTans.com, was quoted in a recent interview, ?We take your UV free, sunless spray tanning experience to the next level. Our technicians are all trained and certified. We know the health benefits of using a professional spray tanning service outweigh cheap spray tan booths or any untrained girl on the street that calls herself a skilled spray tanning pro. Airbrush and Spray tanning are art forms. To get your clientele to look even and flawless, without tan lines, and to look natural with a healthy glow takes skill and practice. Our technicians are required to log long hours of practice time before they are allowed to work with real clients. We use only the best application guns the industry has to offer and our proprietary solutions are an industry leading line. All this ensures our clients desired results are achieved."

According to the Tantrum website their clients achieve their desired color & maintain their sunless tans with their top notch products like Tantrum's moisturizing tan extender infused with DHA. They also offer tips you can review on the TantrumMobileSprayTans.com website. These premium products ensure Tantrum's customers achieve even, natural-looking tanned skin tone color that lasts much longer than expected with proper after-care.

Superior sunless tanning in as few as twenty minutes, and fantastic maintenance products, enables Tantrum to take their health conscious tanners to the next level with natural tanning solutions and professional results.

Miss Dixon goes on to say, "We are serious and trained spray tanners. Our clients don't have to worry about their spray tanning experience. They can relax and enjoy the experience; they are in good, skilled hands. Our mission is to make them look flawless and feel great; we always leave receiving tons of compliments and have many 5 star reviews on the web. It's likely why we've been so blessed with repeat customers and referral business. We train customer service oriented professionals to offer the best and safest tan experience in South Florida!! Everybody loves our staff!!
