April 15, 2020

April 15, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C., a Columbus GA Law Office, is pleased to announce that they continue to offer their services and take up cases despite the COVID-19 pandemic and its associated Shelter-In-Place order.

Tim Derrickson, a representative of the law firm, says, "Here at Kenneth S. Nugent P.C., we are constantly evaluating and taking into consideration the latest news and updates regarding the spread of the COVID-19. Rest assured, we are taking every precaution to make our law firm a safe place for all our employees and clients."

Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. proudly asserts that they are fully prepared and capable of continuing to provide legal assistance despite the pandemic. In fact, the law firm has developed electronic systems to protect and streamline their processes. Their COVID-19 task force has also been relentlessly focused on providing uninterrupted services to their clients. To ensure the safety of their clients' personal data from ransomware and systems hackers while their employees are working remotely, the firm also carries out 24/7 monitoring on their systems.

As noted on the law firm's website, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. gives utmost importance to keeping their clients and employees safe. Due to this, they have limited their clients' need to travel outside of their home. In lieu of the usual meet-ups and discussions in person, the firm is utilizing their secure Client Portal for all those who need to share sensitive and/or private information in order to proceed with their case. In addition to this, the firm is relying on their existing online infrastructure, including the website and social media accounts, to serve and inform clients.

Derrickson adds that the firm is conducting business as usual, with some included safety precautions. These precautions may feel a bit strange due to lack of person-person contact, but the firm maintains that they are dedicated to providing clients with the most professional legal experience in the state of Georgia while keeping them safe.

The firm's vision is to ensure that families will get the maximum settlement from military benefits, life insurance proceeds, pensions and social security benefits. In order to counter the defense used by large corporations and insurance companies, attorneys from Kenneth S. Nugent P.C. will make use of the best medical experts and accident reconstructionists to investigate the cause and circumstances of any injury or death. They will also ensure that all forms and paperwork are filed accurately and promptly. The law firm aims to make local, affordable justice available to everyone, at any time or place.

When your life is shattered into pieces due to an accident, your job is to get healthy. Our job is to help you pick up the pieces. You may be having problems getting the compensation you deserve as a result of vehicle accidents, truck or tractor-trailer accidents, mass transit accidents, medical malpractice, wrongful death or any of an assortment of other causes. Contact Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. immediately, so we can give you a Columbus GA Injury Attorney that will provide the right guidance to ensure you can cover the long-term expenses that come with a serious injury. Our team provides the personal care, attention, and aggressive advocacy you need to get the justice you seek, compensation you deserve and peace of mind that comes with knowing you are protecting your family," Derrickson says.

Over the years, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. come to be known as one of Georgia's most experienced law firms. Founded in 1985, the firm has been trusted by thousands of clients and has had over 30 years of experience in handling many different kinds of cases. The firm's practice areas include vehicular accidents of all types, workers' compensation claims, medical malpractice suits, defective products, dangerous property, nursing home abuse and even wrongful death cases.

During this COVID-19 pandemic, the firm's legal team is only a phone call, email, fax, text or website chat away. Without leaving one's home, clients can still talk to an experienced Injury Lawyer Columbus GA at their convenience. For questions and concerns, the firm asserts that clients may contact their legal team at any time.
