Santa Clarita, California based LA Fair Offer is pleased to report that they are maintaining their standard as one of the best options through which to sell real estate in a quick and hassle-free manner. In particular, they offer a way out for homeowners who are dealing with financial struggles.

Selling a house in Los Angeles can be a gruesome endeavor for some people, as the traditional home-selling experience is often described as a terrible experience even when a real estate agent is involved in the process. Homeowners often spend months advertising their properties on the market without receiving any serious offers, placing them in a dire situation if what they need is a quick solution to their financial struggles. While this was the unavoidable state of the matter in the past, LA Fair Offer brings a new solution: they are able to buy houses all across the region for cash. Their purchase can be completed within a couple of weeks.

"Our goal is to take this 6-12 month long process and condense it as much as possible to make it both convenient and straightforward for you. We understand that waiting for months with no reassurance is just not feasible for everyone. That is why we buy houses in LA, giving you an alternative that addresses these problems as well as all of the other issues commonly associated with selling real estate," says Ed Stapleton, a representative of LA Fair Offer.

LA Fair Offer seeks to facilitate the home sale process for their clients, delivering special assistance and benefits to those who find themselves in a financial emergency. One of these benefits includes selling the property without having to either clean up or repair the house, saving the homeowner time, money and a significant amount of effort in planning and preparations. The company also eliminates the need for a real estate agent, which also speeds up the process significantly and removes other inconveniences for homeowners.

"If you can't afford the cost of repairs, or can't wait for them to be finished before selling your house, you'll definitely see the value in selling your house to us," says Stapleton. "Our expertise and knowledge of the real estate market allow us to close deals sooner than any other company or real estate agent could, without any fees or additional charges. This is simply the best way to receive cash for your home without having to wait for months or investing a significant amount of money in repairs or remodeling."

LA Fair Offer says that their home-buying process begins with dispatching of an inspector to their client's property after they are initially contacted. The company's representative will evaluate the property based on its condition and assess its value by taking the cost of similar properties recently sold in the area into consideration. This is then used to produce a no-obligation all-cash offer that is presented to the client in question as soon as 24 hours after the initial contact.

"Whether you follow through with our offer or not is all up to you, though we reassure you that this is all done completely free of charge. This is undoubtedly the best option if you want to sell your house fast," says Stapleton. He adds that once their clients have been presented with an offer, they can follow through and close the deal within a couple of weeks. However, it is up to the client to decide whether they want to close the deal immediately or wait.

Stapleton adds, "Let us guide you and handle all of the challenges and issues that tend to arise when trying to sell a property in Los Angeles. We'll make sure that it all goes as seamlessly as possible, getting the money to you in record time."

The company's website offers more details on LA Fair Offer and their services.
