

Chip Berry Advises All Homeowners To Check Their Home Insurance In Cincinnati

April 28, 2020

April 28, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Cincinnati, Ohio based Chip Berry Insurance has issued a public advisory entreating householders and property owners to check the conditions attached to their home insurance. This announcement was made in response to the rising cost of materials and labor, which was not taken into account for many areas across the US, particularly disaster prone areas.

In 2016, it came to light that there may be many households that do not have any insurance at all on their property, putting them at significant risk. The firm believes that many may still be at risk simply because they do not realize that it is their obligation to insure their property and personal items. Fortunately, a checklist of the typical categories a homeowner may want to include on their home insurance policy has been made available at: <https://www.berry-agency.com/personal/homeowners-insurance/>.

Chip Berry of Chip Berry Insurance says, "Taking these two factors together, anyone who has any damage to their property could be hit with a double whammy. Some are not insured at all, and others are so uninsured that it may be impossible for them to rebuild their home and replace their personal goods. Now is the time to take a few minutes just to check your home insurance coverage and to make sure that it covers not just the value of your contents, determining whether you want a new for old replacement and other details. I want to stress that you also need to cover the true cost of rebuilding your home completely, both now and in the future. That is something we can help you with?just give us a call."

CNBC recently reported that millions of homes are under-insured due to the additional tariffs levied on construction materials as well as the rising cost of labor due to the shortage of skilled workers. The resulting risk means that, should a disaster befall them (such as a fire), they could be left with huge losses that might even impact the mortgage market. As many people know, the greater Cincinnati area also has a much higher than average risk of having a tornado than the state of Ohio and the whole of the US. The most violent tornadoes can cause tremendous destruction, destroying large and small buildings alike, hurling vehicles hundreds of yards and establishing their destructive path a mile wide and up to 50 miles long. As such, this type of coverage is essential.
