April 20, 2020

April 20, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Los Angeles, California based consumer finance agency Highway Title Loans is reaching out to announce that they are able to provide a next day financial aid for a large number of states across the US. The company is one of the leading providers of car title loans in California.

Janet Patterson, a representative for Highway Title Loans, says, "In these uncertain times, nobody can be sure of their financial position. What with the current pandemic wreaking havoc across the globe, both financially and otherwise, people are finding themselves in a lot of trouble. It can be very helpful to have a reliable place to reach out to for some financial aid. At Highway Title Loans, we're looking to provide exactly that service."

Highway Title Loans is a nationwide provider of online financial aid. While the company does not currently provide services in every state, they assert that they do have a good footprint of states where they are able to offer next day financial aid to those in need. The company affirms that, as of April 2020, they are able to provide online financial aid using car titles as collateral. Anyone within the state of California can apply using the online portal on their website or over the phone. If those two options are not possible, they may apply in person at the company's new Southern California office.

Patterson says, "We do have an office, but due to the current pandemic and the quarantine rules, we highly suggest that you use the online form on the Highway Title Loans website or call us over the phone. We understand more than anyone how urgently you might be in need of some money, which is why we've carried out improvements behind the scenes to our website to ensure that we are able to help you around the clock."

He continues, "We know there are hundreds of title loan companies out there that want your business. Frankly, it's very easy to find a service that can get you a title loan, but is that what you really want? At Highway Title Loans, we're all about helping you make the best decisions. This means that we'll do all we can to first evaluate your situation. Do you even need to use your vehicle as collateral for a loan or are there other more realistic options that would work better for your situation? Not everyone that comes to our site is best suited for this type of funding. We'll do our best to identify those people and help them to determine the best course of action."

The company emphasizes the importance of working with a financial aid provider that has their clients' best interest in mind. In addition to recommending other types of financial resources, the company assures customers that they will also make sure that anyone who needs financial aid will get the best terms and rates that are available. Patterson says, "Some applicants apply with the first lender they come across online and end up borrowing way more than they need. Or they sign the first financing contract they see and end up getting charged a huge amount in interest or fees. When you apply for fast cash with Highway Title Loans, you don't need to worry about making mistakes like that. We'll make sure you only borrow what you need."

The services provided by the company have earned them a lot of praise from consumers who have found themselves in tight spots financially. On the Highway Title Loans website, Debbie Harrison praises the company's services in her 5-Star review, saying, "I took out a loan with another company a few months ago but the interest rate was really high. I found out I could refinance my loan and submitted an application with Highway. They were able to find me a lender with better rates and payoff terms. Thanks!"

In another review found on the same page, Robert Davidson says, "I applied for a title loan on Wednesday and got cash sent to my bank account the following day. The process was easy enough, and the only issue was that I had recently moved from New York to California. Fortunately, I had already registered my vehicle with the California DMV and I was good to go."

Those who want to learn more about Highway Title Loans and the various services they provide or are looking to get same day funding with Highway Title Loans can find more information on the company's website. Additionally, the company encourages interested parties to get in touch with Janet Patterson directly via email or phone. The company can also be reached through the contact form on their website. In addition to their website, Highway Title Loans maintains a presence on Facebook where they frequently post updates, share media and communicate with their customers.
