Roofing shingles are typically made of asphalt but are available in a wide range of materials including wood, slate, metal, terracotta clay, concrete, and composite materials. Damaged or worn-out shingles can spoil the aesthetic appearance of a roof and have the potential to cause roof leaks. McHenry Roofing professionals are trained and experienced in the repair of all types of roofing shingle materials.

On average, roof shingles last about 15 years unless damaged by bad weather or mechanical causes. Professional roofers in Baltimore, MD perform quick and affordable repairs using high-quality shingles that are easily available all year round.

Roofing installations include an initial estimate by a professional roofing estimator, followed by the selection of roofing type and materials. McHenry Roofing uses industry-approved materials, fixtures, and consumables to ensure the structural integrity and long-term quality of newly installed roofs. The roofing process is followed by a detailed inspection.

The McHenry Roofing team performs a complete inspection of all roof elements to check the integrity of starter strips, deck protection, leak barriers, and ridge gaps before performing shingle repairs or replacements. The Baltimore, MD single replacement company offers hassle-free home improvement financing for roofing, re-roofing, and maintenance services.

According to a spokesperson for the re-roofing company in Baltimore, Maryland, "A maintained asphalt roof improves the value, curb appeal, and thermal efficiency of a home, office, store, or mixed-use property. We are delighted to announce our affordable new roof installation service to customers across Baltimore City and Baltimore County."

McHenry Roofing is a certified roofing contractor, placing the company among the top 3 percent of roofers. As part of its certification, the company meets all state licensing & insurance requirements while maintaining a positive reputation in the local community and being committed to ongoing professional training.

According to a spokesperson for McHenry Roofing, "We believe that your roof should always be beautiful, strong, and should last for many years. We are happy to announce our shingle repair and replacement services to keep homes and office roofs in top condition for years to come."

McHenry Roofing is a family owned and operated roofing company headquartered in Wayne, NJ. The company has more than two decades of experience in professional roofing and is licensed and insured for operations across eight NJ counties. The company provides a free consultation and estimate on all services including roof inspections, roofing estimates, roof repairs, and new roof installations and re-roofs. They work with both asphalt shingle roofing and metal roofing systems. No matter the size of the roofing job, the company is committed to safety, quality, and timely performance for each and every roofing job.
