

Wilmington Personal Injury Lawyers At Schuster Jachetti LLP To Host Informational Webinar

April 20, 2020

April 20, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Wilmington, DE ? The Wilmington personal injury lawyers at Schuster Jachetti LLP have scheduled their next informational webinar on how victims of medical malpractice should handle their possible claims.

Joseph J. Jachetti, Esq., explains, "On April 30, 2020, at 9:30 PM, we plan on sharing some legal insight that could help those who sustained injuries caused by surgical error. It is understood that patients who have been the victim of medical malpractice also need medical attention they would not have received if health professionals had not made the error. The purpose of hosting our webinar is to provide victims informational support that can be sought out through a potential lawsuit."

Schuster Jachetti LLP's legal team has handled a range of injury cases throughout the years, including those related to workplace accidents, auto, and motorcycle accidents, slip, trip and falls, and more.

"It's not always easy to know whether medical malpractice has happened, which is why we recommend patients to contact our injury lawyers in Wilmington if you have any suspicions. We offer free consultations to individuals who have suffered injuries and are looking for legal representation. With decades of experience, our legal team knows what questions to ask, and will dedicate their time and efforts into receiving the maximum compensation you deserve," Mr. Jachetti shares.

The legal team at Schuster Jachetti LLP handles medical malpractice claims that concern surgical mistakes, anesthesia errors, misdiagnosis, and prescription errors.
