Philadelphia, PA ? The Philadelphia slip and fall attorneys at Philly Slip and Fall Guys have announced their upcoming legal webinar.

Keith Kofsky, the managing attorney at the firm, shares, ?In many cases, accidents that involve slip, trip and falls are often overlooked and the victims tend to believe they were at fault for their injuries. Severe injuries can affect the ability to work, incur medical costs, and sometimes even long-term effects. The principle behind this webinar is to inform slip and fall victims that they may be able to seek compensation for their injuries.?

The slip and fall lawyers in Philadelphia have been representing clients who have sustained injuries caused by slipping on wet floors, icy sidewalks, cracked or broken walking surfaces, and falling on stairwells.

?When grocery stores fail to maintain a safe condition for customers, the owners could be liable for any injuries caused by their negligence. Our legal team brings cases against property owners due to accidents on their premises; this includes retail stores, restaurants, fitness centers, apartment complexes, and more. With our passion for justice and compassion for our clients, our goal is to fight for maximum compensation owed to ensure the slip and fall victims can get the assistance they need to move on with their lives,? concludes Mr. Kofsky.

Philadelphia residents who would like to join in on the webinar, please email info@phillyslipandfallguys.com.
