

Westchester Personal Injury Lawyers At Banville Law To Host Legal Webinar

April 23, 2020

April 23, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Westchester, NY - The Westchester personal injury attorneys at Banville Law will be hosting their informative legal webinar on giving examples of medical malpractices.

Laurence Banville Esq., states, "On April 30th, 2020 at 9:30 PM, we will be hosting a webinar for individuals to gain some legal insight on possible medical malpractices and what to look for if someone feels like they may be a victim. It is not always clear if there was medical error or negligence, so understanding what to look for will help individuals be aware of errors and be proactive on an action that is deemed necessary."

The experienced injury attorneys in Westchester not only handle malpractice suits but other practice areas such as accidents caused by slip and falls, auto crashes, and workplace injuries.

"Individuals turn to medical facilities for help when something is wrong, and expect the best care given to them by the medical professionals. As unfortunate as it is, medical professionals are human too, causing them to be susceptible to medical error and negligence just like anyone else. A medical care provider has a standard of care required when treating patients, and if they fail to do so, they can be liable for damages caused to victims involved,? concludes Mr. Banville.
