April 23, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Philadelphia, PA - The Philadelphia personal injury lawyers at Laffey, Bucci, and Kent will host a webinar on the importance of following guidelines after sustaining injuries caused by a car accident.

“On April 30, 2020, at 9:30 PM, our team of experienced attorneys are looking forward to providing legal guidance on what one should do after being involved in a car accident. Unfortunately, car, motorcycle, truck, and pedestrian accidents happen every day in Philadelphia, and our job is to help those who suffered injuries. With your best interest at heart, our team strives to fight for maximum compensation for the losses obtained by negligent drivers,” shares Jeffrey Laffey, the managing attorney at the law firm.

The injury lawyers in Philadelphia at Laffey, Bucci, and Kent, are a diverse legal team that handles other types of cases caused by work injuries, sexual abuse, medical malpractice, and shootings.

Mr. Laffey goes on to share, “Over the last ten years, the number of car accidents have skyrocketed due to the negligence of drivers, with the highest percentage being teenage drivers. Due to technological devices, the most common causes of accidents are distracted drivers who are found to be texting, talking on the phone, or changing their music. Other causes are careless driving, such as speeding and drunk driving. With most acts of negligence being avoidable, the at-fault party should be held liable for injuries caused to the innocent victim.?
