April 24, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Santa Fe, NM. ? In order to better serve the residents and businesses of the Santa Fe area, The Mail Box Store has recently added a 24-hour access building for mailbox rentals. The shipping store in Santa Fe is committed to serving its customers with the best products and services at the right price and is consistently looking for ways to better serve their community.

At The Mail Box Store in Santa Fe, the team's top priority is the customer. The addition of the 24-hour mailbox center will make receiving mail more convenient and help a broader range of customers. The separate mailbox building allows customers to pick up their mail 24/7 at a time that is most convenient. The building is always well-lit and monitored by security, so packages and customers are kept safe. No matter the quantity or size, The Mail Box Store will receive and hold all mail and packages delivered and always send text or email notifications when a package is received.

Unlike Post Office boxes, private mailbox rentals in Santa Fe allow customers to have mail sent to an actual street address that all carriers will deliver to. This can be useful for customers that move or travel frequently, as well as small business owners. Customers have the ability to receive mail at a constant address with no interruptions. Mail forwarding is simple and free for private mailbox owners.

Currently, The Mail Box Store in Santa Fe is running specials to celebrate the opening of their 24-hour mailbox building. To receive information regarding the special pricing or benefits of the new mailbox building, customers can give The Mail Box Store a call at (505) 930-7766 or visit their website www.tmbssantafe.com.
