

White Plains Personal Injury Lawyers At Banville Law Announce Upcoming Informational Webinar

April 24, 2020

April 24, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

White Plains, NY ? The White Plains personal injury lawyers at Banville Law, plan on hosting their next legal webinar towards the end of the month.

Laurence Banville, a managing attorney at the law firm, shares, ?On April 30th, 2020 at 9:30 PM, our legal team will host a webinar on the numerous public places a slip, trip or fall can happen in New York. With decades of experience, we have seen a plethora of personal injury claims that happen in public locations all over the city. Property owners who neglect to provide safe and secure surroundings for residents can be held accountable for compensation the victim may be entitled to after suffering injuries.?

At Banville Law, the personal injury attorneys in White Plains have successfully won personal injury cases that helped victims receive compensation to cover injuries, medical expenses, lost wages, and emotional pain and suffering.

?Slip and fall accidents are, unfortunately, a common incident, and most people don?t realize they can seek reimbursement for the injuries they sustained. In the case of an accident, it is imperative to receive medical help right away, photograph the scene of the accident, and follow a list of other precautions if pursuing legal action is considered. The purpose of this webinar is to give some insight into the claims process and what residents can do to be better prepared in the case of an accident,? concludes Mr. Banville.

If New York residents are interested in joining this webinar, register by emailed info@banvillelaw.com.

The White Plains office location is: Banville Law 44 S Broadway #100, White Plains, NY 10601, USA. The law office can be reached by phone at (914) 228-1866.
