Wilmington, DE - The Schuster Jachetti LLP, Wilmington personal injury attorneys, have announced their upcoming informational legal webinar.

"On April 30, 2020, at 9:30 PM, our law office is planning on providing insightful information for accident victims to use to their advantage. This invaluable legal guidance brought to viewers through our upcoming webinar will discuss how a lawsuit can help recover compensation for damages sustained during a car accident," shares Joseph J. Jachetti, the managing attorney at the law firm.

Schuster Jachetti LLP's injury lawyers in Wilmington have represented thousands of residents for over 30 years, and have been fighting tirelessly for their clients to get compensation for their injuries. The legal team pursues other injury cases for clients caused by slip and fall accidents, work-related accidents, medical malpractice, and different types of suits.

Mr. Jachetti goes on to explain, "The majority of serious car accidents resulting in severe injuries, create medical expenses far past what health insurance companies are willing to pay. This leaves accident victims responsible for the medical costs left unpaid for, therefore, creating a financial hardship on the victim and their family. Our legal team understands the stress that can cause and can help fight for compensation to pay for past and future expenses associated with the accident."
