April 28, 2020 -
Chester, PA - The experienced Chester personal injury attorneys at Schuster Law have announced their upcoming legal webinar, hosted at the end of the month.

?On April 30th, 2020 at 9:30 PM, our legal team will work together to answer a list of questions on what types of injuries are covered by workers? comp and what the claims process entails. We understand filing a work injury claim can be a long and tedious process, and if it?s not done correctly, it can lead to a denial of benefits. After handling thousands of claims and appeals, we know what it takes to fight for maximum compensation for our clients,? shares Ken Schuster, the managing attorney at the law firm.

The injury lawyers in Chester at Schuster Law handle workers? compensation claims from the initial filing period, or for the appeal process after the initial claim was denied. The law team extends its legal representation to managing other personal injuries cases caused by incidents involving slip and falls, medical malpractice, and car accidents.

Mr. Schuster concludes, ?With 30 years of experience handling thousands of work injury cases, our legal team understands the financial stress unexpected medical bills and lost wages can put on a family. Because of this, we provide workers with free consultations so that potential clients get the opportunity to seek legal guidance without added costs.?
