April 28, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Fort Walton Beach, Fla.-?The Law Office of J.J. Talbott cares for the community of Fort Walton Beach and the surrounding areas. As a local?workers? compensation lawyer in Fort Walton Beach, FL,?they are ecstatic to do everything and anything they can to help the community they love during the current coronavirus pandemic. Most recently, the office provided a meal from Olive Garden to Ascension Sacred Heart in Pensacola for the janitors and maintenance staff that have?been working hard to maintain the cleanliness of the hospital.

The office recognizes these workers are of utmost importance during these uncertain times, as their job helps to minimize the spread of COVID-19 allowing nurses and doctors to focus on doing their jobs. The office announced that they intend to continue supporting these workers this every week. Each week rotating for different sectors of the health care system?to?show their support during this difficult time.?

?We just want to say thank you to all the health care workers all the way down to the support staff. They don?t get much recognition, but they work hard and what they do matters just as much,? said Carrie Talbott, the wife of J.J. Talbott.??

The law office is known for its past charitable contributions through community events such as Spring Flings or Field Days. These events are often free for families to attend and the office shares upcoming events on their social media pages.
