April 30, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Even after the Covid-19 pandemic is contained, its impact may linger for several years. One that will have the most impact is the healthcare industry. American residents can potentially face higher health care costs. However, the extent to which costs grow is still unknown.

Korthase Insurance, the Best Health Insurance Agency in Hilton Head SC, offers ways to help prepare for the future. The company urges everyone, especially those who are nearing senior years or their loved ones, to invest in health. The insurance company specializes in programs for senior citizens in Hilton Head and Bluffton, SC. They have been helping senior citizens, and their families compare top-rated Medicare supplements and Medicare Advantage and choose the right plan for them.

With the expected increase in health care costs, Korthase Insurance says their customers can significantly benefit from their varied lists of insurance products for seniors. The trusted business mainly offers the Best Medicare Supplement Coverage in Hilton Head, SC.

An example of its Medicare Supplement product is Medigap. This product, which can be availed on top of the seniors' Medicare, helps to pay some of the costs that original Medicare doesn't cover. Medigap also includes copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles.

Another product they offer is the Medicare Part D prescription drug coverage or the Prescription Drugs Plans, which subsidizes the costs of prescription drugs for enrollees. They also provide hospital indemnity insurance policy. This type of insurance plan can pay much-needed cash to the policyholder or designee if the former is laid up with growing expenses. It provides a fixed daily, weekly, or monthly benefit to the plan holder.

Korthase Insurance also provides a long-term care plan for senior citizens in Hilton Head, SC. This plan covers the cost of a nursing home stay for the senior. However, the children of the senior citizen can also withdraw the money if needed. They also offer dental and vision plans, which are not part of the usual insurance coverage. The company also provides annuities, an insurance contract where payments are guaranteed by the company issuing the contract.

Furthermore, the local insurance company offers reasonable plans to help SC residents. "At Korthase Insurance, we are fully dedicated in providing our very best effort to each and every client. We deliver top service with quality attention and the most appropriate, properly priced insurance product," says William Bill Korthase, the company owner. With more than three decades of experience in various insurance plans and products, William is considered a respected personality in the industry.
