May 27, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Munir Group Real Estate Brantford has just announced that they now have over 200 5-star reviews on their Google Maps Business Listing. This is a huge source of pride for a company that claims they care about their clients and always puts their needs first. Glowing reviews are the best way to back up a statement like that. It's also part of what keeps this real estate company positioned as the highest rated real estate team in Brantford, Ontario, and the surrounding areas.

Here are some examples of reviews that have been left on the company on the above-mentioned Google Maps Business Listing. All-Star Bulldogges had this to say about the appreciation he had for the company's services, "BIG thanks to Manny and his team for selling my house for 99% of my asking price within THREE days of listing! This team is very hands-on and accommodating - very respectful of their client's time and their home. I would recommend the Munir Group to anyone looking for a real estate agent that not only gets the job done but actually cares about their clients. Also, Tania Gilmour wrote, "Amy Henderson has been an exceptional realtor for us. I am a first-time home buyer while my hubby has previously owned. We have been trying to find our forever home in the new part of West Brantford. I have had many questions and Amy has been available to promptly answer all of my questions no matter how silly they may be. She is very knowledgeable, and if there is anything she isn't sure about, she isn't afraid to say she's not sure, but she will look into it for us. We have both been so pleased with Amy's hard work and dedication to us. We will recommend her to everyone we know moving forward."

These Brantford Real Estate Reviews are very representative of the company's dedication to its clients. At present, 215 reviews have been left on The Munir Group's Google Maps Business Listing. When these reviews are all averaged out, the result is a highly commendable 5 out of a possible 5-star rating. That is very rare for any business, no matter what line of work they are in. It takes a huge commitment to their craft for a company to generate consistent 5-star reviews over a long period of time. That may explain why they also have another 182 reviews that have been left on their Facebook page that also average out to an impressive 5 out of a possible 5-star rating.

The company owner, Manny Munir, talked about how much these favourable reviews mean to him and his staff, "All of these 5-star reviews mean a lot to us. They are a huge source of pride for my staff and myself and greatly reflect the commitment we have to meeting and exceeding our clients' real estate needs. They also provide excellent word of mouth advertising that is far better than anything we could possibly create. With that being said, I also believe that if we get anything less than a 5-star review from a customer, we have not done our jobs to the best of our abilities. For me as a business owner that is what these 5-star reviews mean the most. They affirm that myself and the others that work for The Munir Group have given a maximum effort to satisfy that client."

The Munir Group ? Brantford is not only a highly rated real estate agency, they have also received many awards for their efforts. This includes being named one of the top three realtors in Brantford 4-years running, and in 2017 they won the Reader's Choice Diamond Award. They are a full-service company that assists with the real estate needs of home buyers, home sellers, and builders.
