The Carabin Shaw attorneys practice law in various fields including auto accidents, motorcycle accidents, semi truck accidents/18 wheeler crashes, wrongful death, injured workers, and product liability. More about Carabin Shaw can be found at <https://carabinshaw.com>.

Attorney Carla Dixon is a bilingual native of South Texas and she had obtained a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Texas at Brownsville. She earned her law degree from St. Mary's Law School and her expertise and law focus is on personal injury, auto collision, and products liability. She is a member of the Texas Trial Lawyers Association, San Antonio Bar Association, Bexar County Women's Bar Association, and Texas Bar College.

"For me, the best part of my job is being able to make a difference in my clients' lives by fighting for justice on their behalf when the insurance companies are trying to take advantage of them," explained Ms. Dixon. "By putting myself in my clients' shoes, I am able to have empathy towards them, and connect with them on a personal level so that they know I truly care about them and their cases."

Carabin Shaw P.C. has more than 200 years of combined experience in personal injury law and they have won more than 36,000 personal injury and wrongful death cases. They offer their services only to individuals who have been injured or wrongfully killed in accidents. They don't represent insurance companies or corporations and they are ready to take the case all the way to trial and beyond in the event that the insurance company wrongfully refuses to honor or resolve the client's claim. And they only get paid if the client wins the case, meaning there is no fee unless they were able to successfully resolve the case.

They have partnered with the best doctors and medical experts in the area and can send their clients to them for the best possible treatment. They offer free legal consultations, which are currently provided through phone or video conferencing because of the Covid-19 situation. Auto accidents are daily occurrences across Texas but each and every auto accident is different. Most of these accidents are due to another driver's momentary lapse of attention or negligence but sometimes they are caused by reckless behavior. In the state of Texas, if the other driver is negligent, the injured person is entitled to claim for medical bills and expenses, property damage, pain and suffering, lost wages and/or lost income, and mental anguish.

The lawyers at Carabin Shaw P.C. have experience in handling auto accident losses and car crash cases. These include drunk driving losses, intersection accidents, rear end collisions, passenger injuries, hit and run, pedestrian accidents, semi-truck and tractor trailer crashes, motorcycle accidents, and uninsured motorists.

The firm can also help the family members with regards to wrongful death claims. The issue is that wrongful death and personal injury claims can be complex and difficult. Insurance companies will usually want to minimize their exposure or liability when an accident or incident results into a serious injury or death. These companies often have a team of lawyers whose job is to counteract every aspect of the plaintiff's claim. They have been fighting such tactics on behalf of injured families for more than 25 years.

They have helped many individuals and families regards various cases, including motor vehicle accidents, dogs bites or animal attacks, medical malpractice, premises liability such as slip and falls, motorcycle accidents, construction site injuries, personal injury/wrongful death litigation, products liability such as dangerous and defective products DUI-DWI/alcohol-related crashes, workplace injuries, and trucking litigation/semi-truck crashes.
