Rockwell Trading, a financial services company based in Austin, Texas, is proud to announce that ?The PowerX Strategy: How to Trade Stocks and Options in Only 15 Minutes a Day? has now reached Amazon Best Seller status, ranking #2 on Amazon New Releases in Wealth Management. Further, the company is also pleased to announce that the book is currently being offered for Kindles at only $1.99.

Author and company founder Markus Heitkoetter says, ?If you are interested in trading in the market but are unsure of how exactly to get started, The PowerX Strategy is all you need. Building on my own personal experience, the book will help you learn how you can implement the PowerX Strategy to find the best stocks and limit your risk while increasing your profits. The PowerX Strategy is tried and true, which means that you are able to avoid devastating losses as you take control of your financial future in as little as just fifteen minutes a day.?

He continues, ?As you probably already know, trading in the stock market can help you transform your financial future. It can help you grow your wealth, gain financial freedom and build a legacy. Whether you are a new investor who is just starting out or are a seasoned investor, real success relies on having a smart stock trading strategy and systems in place that enable you to not only make more money but to also limit your risk against market corrections and crashes. That is what you get with The PowerX Strategy. It is ideal for both new and experienced traders because the material it covers applies across the board. Our goal is to help you gain financial independence through consistent, long-term wealth. This book provides the tools and direction that can help you accomplish your goals and gain financial freedom.?

The PowerX Strategy has excellent reviews on Amazon, maintaining a near perfect 4.8 out of 5 Star rating. In a recent 5-Star review, Ann F. says, ?This is a very fast read; well organized and well written. This book provides an easy to understand trading strategy, plan and the psychology needed for trading with a profit. Key helpful technical indicators to use with the trading strategy and detailed explanations for enhancing your trading success are provided. In addition, the book provides a link to example spreadsheets for managing your trades and many examples of colorful charts showing when to get in and out of a trade. Wow! So much packed into a short book. A trader, especially a new trader, needs this resource!? Other Rockwell trading reviews can be found on the company?s website as well.

Markus Heitkotter has immense experience in the stock market, having started trading stocks 25 years ago. In 1996, he began developing a number of trading systems and, in 2002, decided to leave his job as a director at IBM to become a trader. Throughout his career, Heitkotter has traded virtually everything from stocks, options, futures, commodities, spreads, forex, and interest rates. Further, he is the author of the bestselling book ?The Complete Guide To Day Trading? and is a regular speaker at Trading Expos and CMEGroup sponsored events. His articles and videos are published on MoneyShow.com, major publications and thousands of websites around the world.

Now, he shares his experience with the world via his YouTube channel. Heitkoetter predicted the stock market crash caused by the COVID-19 pandemic in a video published on the 11th of February 2020. Every day since then, he has been doing ?Coffee with Markus Live? sessions, during which he covers the historic stock market crash, current events and provides proven tips to getting through the current crisis. As with everything else, these discussions are aimed at new and seasoned traders alike. Heitkoetter says his goal is not just to help investors survive the crash but also identify trading opportunities and come out the other end of this pandemic in a financially secure position.
