May 28, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Country Club at DC Ranch, located in Scottsdale, Arizona, is pleased to announce that they, along with other private golf clubs in Scottsdale, will be using safe social distancing measures to help their members and guests enjoy their facilities. The premier private golf and country club boasts a broad range of activities that ensure the whole family can enjoy their time with them.

Melanie Halpert, a representative for The Country Club at DC Ranch, states, "We know that many people have enjoyed our facilities safely in the past, and we want to make sure Scottsdale and its surrounding communities know that we are doing everything in our power to keep them, their guests and our staff safe in the weeks and months to come as well. Similarly, those who are looking to boost their immune system and get fit to fight the virus are more than welcome to come and check out how we can help." The Country Club at DC Ranch is closely monitoring the situation, and they ask everyone to remain vigilant as they enjoy their golf and tennis activities, visit the fitness and performance center, lounge by the pool or simply enjoy the view from one of their many eateries.

The Scottsdale golf club has always been a very popular premier course in the golfing community thanks in part to their stunning courses, designed by Tom Lehman and John Fought. Set at the base of the McDowell Mountains, which provide stunning backdrops for each of their courses, golfers can comfortably develop their game and enjoy the challenge of the course they choose to play on. The Hacienda Clubhouse combines the most charming aspects of historic Arizona with those of the great Western resorts of the 1920s and 1930s. It is noteworthy for the fact that it provides an exceptional level of service and comfort in a warm and inviting atmosphere.

The club has received a plethora of glowing reviews from members and guests who have had the pleasure of experiencing their facilities in person. Colleen Maruster gave the club a 5-Star score in her Google review, for instance, stating, "The golf course, fitness center, tennis courts and food service are all set at a level that aims to be #1 in Phoenix and Scottsdale. The Country Club at DC Ranch is simply the best and continues to seek feedback that improves year after year."

Halpert responds, "We continually seek feedback from our members and guests to ensure that we make their time with us as enjoyable as possible. Along with having one of the best Scottsdale private golf courses, we also have a stable of Pros who can help any golfer improve their game. Our 9 Hole Playing Lesson has been very popular with those who haven't been able to play as much as they would like this year. While many just want to get back out on the course, having a pro along to help improve their game has made sure they really enjoy their time."

Only PGA Certified Professionals coach at The Country Club at DC Ranch, providing a range of individual and group instruction that is designed to fit around even the busiest schedules. Their range of weekly Ladies' and Gentlemen's Golf activities, including clinics for both beginners and advanced players, is always in demand. As a result, the club is as welcoming for the socially active as it is for those who simply take their game seriously.

Earlier this year, they opened a new 9 hole private golf course, in keeping with the rising demand for shorter golf courses that enable keen golfers to squeeze in a round within busy schedules. Halpert was quoted on several news sites explaining that, "Making golf more approachable is key. We have observed that members are busier than ever and want an opportunity to play even if they don't have four hours to commit. This is why we have opened The Horseshoe, a 9 hole, short course with holes ranging from 54 to 104 yards. This is a perfect fit. Also, those golfers new to the sport may be too intimidated to play a traditional 18-hole course. This short course will provide them with a fun opportunity to learn and enjoy the game."

Those interested in checking out every amenity and pleasure The Country Club at DC Ranch has to offer may find a complete set of details regarding memberships and facilities on their website. The club is also available for booking on special occasions, including weddings, anniversary celebrations and receptions.
