Catonsville, Maryland based Ron's Amazing Products, marketer of a popular pen recorder, has announced the launch of a new Pinterest account. The company currently has six Pinterest boards, which followers are enjoying tremendously.

Ronald Hoff, owner and CEO of Ron's Amazing Products, released a statement about the account launch. He stated: "Our followers find our boards interesting and funny. They also know that following those boards will keep them updated on what's happening in the latest technology."

Pinterest is a highly popular social media platform that currently has tens of millions of subscribers. Users simply find pictures of things that they like, and add them. Many businesses use Pinterest as a means of interacting with customers, and showing them glimpses of new product launches, getting feedback for future releases, and generally sharing interests.

Ron's Amazing Products, with website at <http://ronsamazingproducts.com>, recently released a spy camera pen on the Amazon marketplace, and the product has gained mass popularity. It currently has a high review rating, with hundreds of customer comments and five star reviews. Consumers find it as entertaining as it is productive, using it for everything from snapping shots of friends to recording entire wedding ceremonies.

The spy camera pen features premium HD effect DVR capabilities with 8GB of memory built in. It has a digital 720p lens that produces high quality videos and photos, and a hidden camera pinhole with a mini CAM-Pencam recorder. It comes complete with a USB cable, and built in rechargeable battery that offers many hours of use before a needed recharge. The company backs all purchases with a 90 day customer satisfaction guarantee.

"We want our customers to keep coming back," says Ronald Hoff. "One of the main reasons that we decided it was time to create a Pinterest account was because we wanted to keep our loyal customers updated on our new products. When we get ready to launch something new, our Pinterest followers will be among the first to know."
