August 27, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pittsfield, Illinois real estate company, Whitetail Properties Real Estate LLC, has just announced an addition to its staff. Chris Cain, a new land specialist in Georgia, has joined the company, bringing with him many years of love for the outdoors and a passion for building relationships with outdoorsmen.

A spokesperson for Whitetail Properties commented on the new hire. He said, "Chris coming onboard is a great thing for both land owners and potential buyers of land in Georgia."

Whitetail Properties, with website at <https://www.whitetailproperties.com/>, specializes in hunting, ranch, and farm land. The real estate company's team covers more than 20 states, with more being added regularly. It is comprised of land specialists who are passionate about hunting, fishing, and everything outdoors related.

"I feel blessed to be working with a company like Whitetail Properties," stated Chris Cain, the newly added real estate agent to the team.

Whitetail Properties was founded in 2007 as a collaboration of hunters, fishermen, farmers, and others who truly enjoy being outdoors. The company strives to make smart investments that benefit their company and their families, and assists buyers with all types of land purchases, including waterfowl properties, ranches and farm land, and mineral properties.

Advertisements for the company can be found in many outdoor enthusiast magazines including North American Whitetail, Open Fences, QDMA's Quality Whitetails, and The Land Report. The business was named one of America's Best Brokerages by The Land Report in 2012.

The real estate firm has a corporate office in Pike County, Illinois, which is well known for its deer population, and supports a nationwide staff of land specialists.

The company plans to add more agents or land specialists from other states soon. Those interested in land in and around Georgia, or who would like more information about the newest land specialist, can learn more about Chris Cain at <https://www.whitetailproperties.com/agents/chris-cain> or at his Facebook page for Whitetail Properties, found at <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Chris-Cain-Whitetail-Properties-Georgia/851782211576437?ref=hl>.
