May 29, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Naperville, Ill. ? The Boxes Etc., a Naperville shipping center, is a proud supporter of other local businesses and frequently encourages their customers to shop local as well. As a part of the Naperville area since 1985, The Boxes cares about its community and the businesses in it. During times such as these, the staff at The Boxes feels it is important for the community to pull together and support everyone that is able to remain open. To promote this support, owner Michele Zajac frequently highlights local restaurants, pet supply stores and more that her family enjoys on The Boxes Etc. Facebook page.

Locally owned and operated, The Boxes understands the importance of a job well-done and always strives to give customers the best experience possible. As an essential business, they have remained open to ensure that the residents and businesses in their community are able to continue sending and receiving packages from loved ones and customers. During this time, customer safety is a top priority and the staff at The Boxes are adhering closely to guidelines set by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

For over 30 years, The Boxes Etc. has focused on providing the best products and shipping services in Naperville, Ill. for their customers at the right price. Open and operating during normal business hours, they are continuing to serve their community and providing any updates and changes as they are made.
