

Pigment: The Paint Workshop Merges Website With Piedmont Paint & Finish Website

June 04, 2020

June 04, 2020 -
Charlottesville, Virginia based painting contractor Pigment: The Paint Workshop is reaching out to announce that they have moved their website, making it a part of the Piedmont Paint & Finish website. Pigment: The Paint Workshop?s new webpage can be found at the following link: https://piedmontpaint.com/pigment-paint-workshop.

Charles Davis, a representative for Pigment: The Paint Workshop, says, ?At Pigment, we specialize in all things paint. Whatever you want painted, we?ve got you covered, whether it?s ?refabbed? furniture, artistic faux, ?antique? glazes, restoration or murals. We also do floors, walls and more. Our professional finishing shop, located a half of a mile east of the Downtown Mall in Charlottesville, includes over 2500 square feet of work space and houses a fully-enclosed professional spray booth, dedicated prep room and artistic finishes studio, which means that we are fully equipped to meet whatever needs you have."

The company states that, from finishing solid wood to laminating to painting entirely new builds, they provide a custom approach in their painting process in order to refresh their customers? spaces. Pigment: The Paint Workshop also uses only sophisticated finishing products that will increase durability and add to the property?s overall value, while significantly reducing environmental impact.

The company employs two experienced teams, a shop crew and a field crew. The company?s shop crew is headed by the lead painter, who has over 20 years of experience. The lead painter oversees all aspects of shop work as well as applies all finish coats. The company?s field crew typically comprises two painters, and a larger or smaller team can be requested depending on the scope of the project. The company asserts that they assign a designated supervisor for each project who will be the main point of contact at all times. Additionally, customers also have access to an on-staff designer and artist who is available for both color consultation and artistic finishing. Davis says, ?At Pigment, we are dedicated to providing you with all the help you need to ensure that whatever painting project you undertake reaches a satisfying conclusion.?

While Pigment is able to optimize their interpersonal interactions and evaluate projects in person and in real time, they consider each project a unique endeavor?with its own set of challenges and requirements. However, the company states that they have adapted to the current situation regarding the COVID-19 pandemic and are able to provide their services in a manner that is safe for both employees and customers.

The services provided by Pigment: The Paint Workshop have allowed the company to establish a strong positive reputation among their customers. On Facebook alone, the painting contractor has a perfect 5-Star rating. In a recent review, Amy Nunnally says, ?I just had a fantastic experience working with Christy on a very customized and specific project for a friend's 40th birthday. Christy made a life size board cutout to match a photo of a person. Painted to look just like her, from the photo. We could not have been more pleased, and I highly recommend Christy for specialized creations like this. It's something my friend will have forever. Thanks, Christy.?

In another review, Michelle Pike says, ?I am thrilled with the four poster bed that Pigment just painted for me! They have finished furniture for me in the past, so I was already aware of the high quality of their work. When it came time to put together a realm for my daughter in our new home, there was no question who I would turn to for help?Pigment, of course! They are an absolute delight to work with, able to deliver exactly what I was looking for in a timely manner and at an affordable price. I will definitely refer my friends to them, and I look forward to getting to work with this wonderful crew again in the future.?
