Savannah, GA based The Brown Firm is pleased to announce the launch of their new website. The personal injury firm?s new online platform provides a great deal of useful information regarding their experienced attorneys and their legal services.

The Firm is run by Harry Brown Jr., who is qualified both as a lawyer and as a doctor, giving him a unique understanding of personal injury and how it relates to the law. He is dedicated to fighting for justice for those who have been injured in some way. ?I?m one of the few attorneys who is also a medical practitioner, so I know how to work with other attorneys, healthcare providers and insurance companies to get the best possible outcome for my clients,? states Brown.

With a combined total of over three decades of legal experience, The Brown Firm?s attorneys provide legal representation to victims of personal injury accidents and negligence. They aggressively negotiate and litigate on behalf of their clients, with the goal being to get the maximum compensation possible. The firm understands what personal injury can mean for the injured. When injured, one cannot work, and they are generally inconvenienced as day to day tasks will likely become much more difficult to carry out. This awareness of what sort of predicament each individual client might be in?combined with an in-depth understanding of Georgia personal injury law, a great deal of courtroom experience and Harry Brown?s medical background?allows The Brown Firm to offer clients the representation they need to get the compensation they deserve.

The firm?s Savannah personal injury lawyers are trained to strategically fight insurance companies and large corporations in court. As the firm says, ?Whether your case involves a major trucking company, a corporate nursing home, a major insurance company or a large hospital, we make it our priority to investigate each case thoroughly. We pride ourselves on taking cases other Georgia law firms may find challenging to handle. Our injury lawyers in Savannah have established themselves as respected trial attorneys who are not afraid to go to court to get their clients the compensation they deserve. Our goal is for our clients to receive the maximum settlement amount allowed by law, and we will fight aggressively to meet that end.?

One aspect that sets the firm apart from most of their peers is their personal approach to client satisfaction. For instance, The Brown Firm believes it is necessary for the client to feel comfortable with their attorney. From the first phone call to the first free initial consultation, the firm makes it a point to get to know the client, learn all the details of their case and how they have been affected by their injuries. Following this, they will figure out how best to help the client with their case.

A number of clients have left great reviews of the firm. One review on the Google platform, from a client named Rashad, says, ?The Brown Firm has set the standard for me when it comes to attorneys. This is my first time having legal assistance, and Adam Saxe showed me how it?s supposed to be done. He kept me well informed step by step. Most of all, he made me feel as if I was his only client. If I had any questions, he was right there to answer. This was an amazing experience. Thank you, Adam, you are the best!?

Another client shares that they experienced, ?Very friendly service. The team is there to help you every step of the way. My case took a while to solve as there were a bunch of hoops that had to be jumped through, but I have a lot of trust in this firm and will use them again if needed.
