June 08, 2020

June 08, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Audiovideoking, a Los Angeles TV Mounting Home Automation company, was named winner of the Best Home Theater Companies in Los Angeles 2020 beating out 769 other competitors to take home top honors. Expertise presented the award online and listed Audiovideoking as the top Los Angeles Home Theater company on their website. According to their website, Expertise states, "Our proprietary research and selection process identifies the top service professionals in over 200 different industries across the top cities in the United States."

Details about the award can be found here: <https://www.expertise.com/ca/los-angeles/home-theater-install>.

Potential award recipients were analyzed across a number of categories and variables. "We scored Los Angeles Home Theater Companies on more than 25 variables across five categories and analyzed the results to give consumers a hand-picked list of the best?, according to expertise.com.

In order to be in contention for the Best Home Theater Companies in Los Angeles 2020, the 769 Los Angeles Home Theater companies were judged based on:

Reputation - A history of delighted customers and outstanding service;

Credibility - Building customer confidence with licensing, accreditation, and awards;

Experience - Masters of their craft, based on years of practical experience and education;

Availability - Consistently approachable and responsive, so customers never feel ignored;

Professionalism - Providing service with honesty, reliability, and respect.

George Saroj, Owner of Audiovideoking was pleased about the company's performance. He stated, "It's an honor and means a great deal to be recognized as the top TV Mounting and Home Theater Installer in Los Angeles. We truly appreciate our customers and work hard to provide the best possible services we can for them."
