Quintela says, "We pride ourselves in helping small local businesses because we know your struggle. We know how difficult it is to get new customers, and getting new leads can be very expensive when using traditional marketing methods or Adwords. At Lucid Leverage, however, we are able to turn small budgets into strong marketing campaigns. Every single day, we go up against the "big boys" in our clients' industries whatever they are and every day, we beat your competitors. That's our job, and we are very good at what we do. Our guarantee to you is that we will always make you come out on top.?

The quality and reliable nature of the services provided by Lucid Leverage LLC have earned the company a great deal of positive praise from their clients. On the Bark.com platform, the reputation management agency in Los Angeles has a rating of 5 out of 5 Stars. In her review, Jennifer Bull writes, "Chris has managed my SEO for over four years now and, during that time, he has grown my healthcare business dramatically. At one point, I had a negative attack from a competitor, and he aggressively worked to get me back on Google and ranking on the first page as quickly as possible. I have been able to steadily grow my business because of his help, and he is always very willing to take the time to explain and educate me when making new decisions on SEO, marketing, advertising and website design. Thank you for always being an honest voice in a sea of sharks.?"

In another review, Phillip Butler says, "I have been working with Chris for several months now. I couldn't be more pleased. Before I started using Chris, I was using one of the large "factory" internet companies for marketing. You could never get through to talk to anybody. If you had a question, you had to make an appointment a couple of weeks in advance to get it answered. With Chris, the experience is totally different. Not only is he the most knowledgeable marketing person I have come across, he is always available to answer your questions and concerns.?"
