June 12, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

SGCUTE is delighted to share the news that their Baby Monthly Milestone Blanket has received multiple 5-Star reviews on Amazon.

A few months after their initial launch, SGCUTE's baby monthly milestone blanket continues to receive nothing but positive support and feedback from its buyers. At the moment, the baby blanket enjoys an outstanding review score of 5 out of 5 Stars, with over 35 positive testimonials sent in by satisfied customers. The company is taking it upon themselves to celebrate this occasion by expressing their appreciation for the customers who purchased this product and took the time to leave a positive note regarding their experience with it.

"We are very thankful to everyone who has reached out to us through our Amazon page to show their support and share their experience with others," says a representative of SGCUTE. "These positive comments mean everything to us, and they motivate us to come up with new products that our clients can enjoy for themselves or give away as presents. We want to extend an invitation to any client who hasn't done it yet to share their experience through this space, as we are always watching closely and taking their feedback into consideration."

Some of the most recent customer reviews include a testimonial written by Pete Price, who says, "I gave this blanket to a family, and they loved it! The blanket is very soft and comes with a heart to go around the month and a headband for the baby (this was for a girl), and they have already taken the first-month pictures! I highly recommend this as a gift. It can be used for a year and then kept for another baby or passed on to an expecting family member. Lovely!"

Comments like these are abundant, as buyers of the product seem to deeply appreciate the quality of the blanket's fabric and how well it works as a gift. Another comment, written by Catherine Dione, says, "I picked this up for someone who is having a girl. We opened it up, and it's so cute, it will be great to lay the baby on as it is very soft, [and it is great] for pictures as the baby grows. It comes with a red cut out heart that you put over the month they are. This is a wonderful baby shower gift."

The SGCUTE baby monthly milestone blanket is designed with the intention of being the perfect baby shower gift. Featuring a beautiful design and vibrant colors, this baby blanket seeks to be an item that will accompany a mother through the start of a journey that no woman ever forgets.

The company states that, far from being a novelty item, their baby blanket can function perfectly as a regular blanket, remaining perfectly smooth and wrinkle-free after each wash and dry cycle. It is comfortable, large and thick, with dimensions of 51" by 40" and a thickness of 250GSM that makes it comfortable enough to make a baby want to stay on it forever. It comes with a pink floral headband and a red, heart-shaped frame (used to point out the current age of the baby).

"When it comes to capturing special milestones with your baby, there is simply no better way," states the company. "Your newborn will grow up fast but the memories will always stay with you. You can roll out your baby blanket at any time and snap a picture in no time, being ready to share it with your loved ones on social media or just keep it to yourself and show your child when she is all grown up. This is something that every mother should have when raising a baby, and whether you buy it for yourself or as a gift, you won't regret having this around."

SGCUTE assures customers that their baby monthly milestone blanket comes with a lifetime, 100% money-back guarantee. They assert that, if they end up not liking the blanket for any reason, the company's customer service team will refund every cent with no hassle and no further questions asked.
