Sean Goral, owner and Principal Agent of Legacy Insurance Group, says, "We are very proud to have just celebrated our 3rd anniversary doing business in Loudoun County. In that time, we have served the local community to the best of our abilities and have established ourselves as the highest ranking local independent insurance broker and earned ourselves a record breaking 100 5-Star reviews. That's not something that we could have done without the trust and loyalty of our clients and referral partners in Loudoun County. We are very grateful to everybody that has helped support us over the years. We are celebrating this important milestone by launching a new Commercial Insurance Division and expanding our sales team. We are seeking highly motivated and experienced insurance agents specializing in Auto, Home, Business and Life Insurance to join our team and help us serve our mission. With the new division and the expanded staff, we will be able to more efficiently and effectively help Loudoun County residents who need our services."

Legacy Insurance Group gained local acclaim after launching a 10-week campaign to support locally owned businesses in Loudoun County on social media. In this period, the company raffled off gift cards in support of local restaurant owners and also provided educational tips for business owners on how to best manage their business insurance. The company's dedication to helping local businesses is reflected on their website as well, where they have many informative articles that explore the various facets of insurance and give helpful tips to small business owners about their insurance.

The firm offers a variety of insurance services, mainly divided into two categories: Personal Insurance and Commercial Insurance. Under Personal Insurance, they provide auto insurance, home insurance, boat insurance, ATV insurance, life insurance and more. Under Commercial insurance, Legacy Insurance Group provides business insurance, general liability insurance, workers compensation insurance, commercial umbrella insurance, bonds and so on. The company's pride in their reviews is well-earned, as Legacy Insurance Group maintains a perfect 5/5 rating from all their 100 reviews on the Google platform. In a recent review, Kevin Sturm praises the company for its professionalism, quality, responsiveness and value. His review reads, "If you are looking for an insurance company that you can trust to explain what you need, look out for your interests and treat you like a friend, then Legacy Insurance Group is the place for you. The entire process was quick, there was no pressure, only quiet competence and confidence. It was easily the best customer experience I have encountered this year. Sean will do the right thing for your business and your personal life, and he is more concerned about the value he provides than the money that you pay. Great overall experience."

In another review, Pablo Corchon says, "Sean is friendly, prompt, reliable, trustworthy and really cares about insuring the important things and people in your life. He's a good man, and thorough! I saved a bunch of money through Legacy, and I like that I now have all of my policies in one place, whereas I used to have to be with multiple companies and receive more paperwork/bills than necessary. I highly recommend Legacy Insurance Group for all of your insurance needs."
