Employee Agency In Edmonton Celebrates 10th Anniversary

September 03, 2015

September 03, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Express Employment Professionals has announced the celebration of the 10th anniversary of its location in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. And as part of the anniversary celebration, the company has donated $10,000 to the Stollery Children's Hospital.

Jessica L. Culo, one of the founders of the company, released a statement about the donation. She said, "We wanted to do something grand to celebrate our tenth year in business, and what better way than to help children?"

Jessica Culo opened a second office in Edmonton in May of 2005, after the West Edmonton office she and two partners established in 2004 began to see significant growth and success. Both of the Edmonton offices have experienced growth in the past 10 years, and a new office in Edmonton is planned to be opened very soon.

Express Employment Professionals has developed a reputation of being the employment firm Edmonton job seekers go to. It helps people search for and find employment within the area. The company also assists businesses in finding qualified candidates for employment to meet a number of staffing needs. The local franchises are part of a much larger organization, one that has been successful for decades in offices around the world.

Originally founded in 1983, Express Employment's global organization today employs more than 400,000 people across over 700 franchise locations. It has become a staffing agency Edmonton workers depend on to help them find suitable employment over the years, and they don't plan to stop anytime soon. "We're ready for another 10 years of service," states Jessica.

The employment firm's mission is to market and provide workforce solutions throughout the local Edmonton area. Staff members are experienced in providing human resource solutions through a number of industries. The company currently recruits and supplies staff for a number of businesses which include: administration, commercial/industrial, accounting/finance, sales, human resources, operations, supply chain and technical; and their vision is to assist as many people as possible in finding their perfect job in the Edmonton region. The corporate mission is to employ 1 million job seekers every year around the globe.

More about Express Employment Professionals can be seen on the company's website which includes a search feature for both job seekers and those searching for employees for their organizations.
