Austin, Texas' Playtime Gadgets has announced its most recent Udemmy course on photography for iPhones. The photography course, called "iPhoneography," will allow its students to easily take stunning photos with their iPhones.

"There has been a recent rise in interest when it comes to iPhone photography," said Daniel Hall, a spokesperson for Playtime Gadgets. "There has been a lot of media attention on it. Even National Geographic did a special on it on its website because people are starting to realize that they can utilize their iPhone to take beautiful photos. Playtime Gadgets offers quality photography courses and we believe that these courses will make iPhone users love their gadgets more."

The National Geographic article, covers basic tips users of the smartphone can use to take better photos. However, interested individuals would be able to learn more from Playtime Gadgets. Course takers will learn the best composition for iPhoneography, and will be informed about the recommended apps for stylized photos. Instructions on how to take great underwater shots will also be taught. In addition, students would be taught the basics of lighting and angles to achieve perfect shots.

Playtime Gadgets' Facebook group is where users are encouraged to share their underwater iphoneography photos. Some of those who have gone through the company's Udemy iPhoneography course have narrated their positive experiences on Udemy. "I really appreciate the education Daniel and Tony have given my on what I call iPhone photography ? as a special branch of the field. I have had a number of people ask something like ?Where did you buy such a professional photo?? said Dr. Scott Brown, "I tell them that I took it on my iPhone. If they want to learn how, I send them to Daniel!"

With regards to the many benefits of iPhone photography, Daniel Hall says, "The iPhone is one, powerful gadget, and it's amazing to explore its wonders. With the right avenue, and the right tricks, so to speak?users can discover new and exciting things about their gadgets, one of which is great photography. Hopefully, Playtime Gadgets will pave the way for iPhone users to realize their gadgets' full potential."
