Gregory Knapp, a customer that gave the company a 5-Star rating on Google, says "A1 Fence and Gate Repair did great work at my office. Their response time was fast and they were out to meet me within a couple hours. They were extremely knowledgeable about what needed to get done and my gate was fixed the same day. Additionally, it works better now. I would highly recommend A1 Fence and Gate Repair to anyone in need of service."

Residents in the Southern Nevada region are in good hands as the company provides a wide range of options to suit commercial and residential needs. Eli Maciel and the team at A1 Fence LV Fence provide a comprehensive suite of fencing solutions to all their customers, and their services include gate and barrier projects, access control systems and gate operators and repairs as well as maintenance. All projects undertaken are carried out with high levels of professionalism, attention to detail and standard of quality. "They do amazing work and do not leave until all work is completed to the owners' satisfaction," says customer Jodi Brant in a Google review with a 5-Star rating.

The gate repair company asserts that, "We pride ourselves on being a Las Vegas fence company with several decades of experience assisting homeowners with these types of decisions." The clientele served by the company includes regional and national brands, local companies, attractions on and off the Strip and municipal agencies. The experienced team at A1 Fence LV provides products unique to the individual needs of each project undertaken, with particular attention given to the safety of staff, customers and the security of their facilities.

The company also provides a wide range of commercial fencing options to meet the needs of the widespread customer base. Services provided include automatic gate operators, privacy fences, sport court fencing, stainless steel and aluminum railings, barbed wire and razor wire fencing, bridge deck fencing and railings and many other options.

Some of the other services that A1 Fence LV provides attend to the fencing needs of residential premises. Whether a job requires a new installation, smaller repair or installing access control systems, the company will undertake the project with the best interests of the customer in mind. The company does custom work for residences in a variety of materials, including custom work in wrought iron, chain link, vinyl, wood, cedar and aluminum. As a family owned company, the team is known for outstanding craftsmanship and quality.

A1 Fence LV boasts a reputation for being the best fence contractor through their efforts to maintain a high standard of service and customer satisfaction. Cynthia Mitchell, a client who procured their residential services, gave the company a 5-Star rating in a Google review. She says, "Thank you, A1 Fence LV, for helping my mom with her gate, everyone I spoke to was so nice and polite. They did a great job."

The high quality of service and professionalism demonstrated by their team is evident in their glowing reviews, which have resulted in the company being recognized as one of the best in the state for fencing and gate installation/repair work. In the words of the owner, shared in response to a customer review, "All projects are important, large or small, because our customers are important to us. We are glad we are able to assist your needs." It is this outlook that ensures the company's prominence in the Southern Nevada region.

"Eli and his crew did a remarkable job. My project was not a large one, but I felt that my job was just as important as a huge project. He kept me informed on every step of the project right up to the day of installation. I am very happy and heartily recommend A1 Fence LV for all your fencing needs," shares Loretta Brodeur, a satisfied customer who also gave the company 5-Stars in their review.
