Freddie Boersma, a representative for Made By Humans 2 Designs, Inc, says, ?We are all kids at heart, or at least, we should all be kids at heart. As human beings, it?s important to see fun and quiriness in everything around us and take joy from our surroundings. A good way to do this, especially when you have a professional adult life is to have things around you that are practical but still a reminder of your youth. Our Balloon Dog Tape Dispensers are designed with that in mind.?

Boersma continues, "Imagine it: It's just another manic Monday. You grab a cup of coffee and rush to your office, expecting another week of hard work and there, on your desk, is your newly adopted office pet. Always polished and looking sharp, it sits on your office desk in all its shiny splendor, eagerly waiting for that moment it can help you. That's the best part about our Balloon Doggy Tape Dispenser. Not only is it practical, quiet and obedient, it's also adorable and cute! With something like that to remind you what you work for and give you a little joy, we can guarantee that your 9-5 will be a little more bearable and a lot more awesome!"
