

Amundson Law Office Offers Assistance to Clients on Twin Cities Divorce and Family Law

July 20, 2020

EAGAN, MN - July 20, 2020 -
Amundson Law Office, a firm based in Eagan, Minnesota, has announced that they are offering assistance to clients on Twin Cities divorce and family law. Lisa Amundson can serve as a divorce lawyer for residents living in the whole area of the Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul, including Burnsville, Eagan, and neighbouring areas. She is familiar with the emotions that people filing for divorce are experiencing and the kinds of difficult questions that are going through their minds. She is an effective and experienced divorce attorney who can help her client comprehend how the law applies to his or her specific situation.

Despite the emotionally charged atmosphere, it is vital to have a lawyer who has the goal of protecting the client?s future and adapt a sound approach to legal decision-making. The members of the legal team at Amundson Law Office know the difficulties that couples going through divorce are experiencing, which is why they will always strive to focus on the best interests of their client in the legal proceedings so that he or she would be able to focus on establishing a new life.

Those who will go through the divorce process may want to consult with a law firm as early as possible. They are offering a free initial consultation where an experienced divorce attorney will discuss with the client the various options. Lisa Amundson can serve clients from the entire Twin Cities Metropolitan Area from her offices in Bloomington or Minneapolis, or at a convenient location in the Burnsville, Eagan or Apple area.

Lisa Amundson attorney for divorce says, ?Taking the first step is often the most difficult part of the entire divorce process. While there are hundreds of lawyers to choose from who will take your divorce case, knowing how to select the best fit for your situation can be challenging. That is why Amundson Law Office offers a free initial consultation to any new client who is facing a divorce or other family law issue. This gives you the opportunity to ask questions and see if you feel like I am a good fit for you. If you decide you would like to proceed, I will walk you through what to expect in terms of process, timeline, and how much you can expect to pay in legal fees.?

Lisa Amundson will guide her client through the divorce process that has several steps. First is the filing for divorce. The process actually begins with the filing of the paperwork to request the court for divorce. Meanwhile, for those who are interested in knowing the best time to consult with a lawyer, it is never too early to contact a divorce attorney to help the client prepare. The second step is to file for temporary support and custody. While every situation is unique, it is usually the spouse who doesn?t have an income who will be provided with temporary financial support.

Next is the discovery process in which both parties are allowed to have access to various financial information. Since it is a common practice for one spouse to handle all financial issues in a household, the other spouse usually has little or no information regarding financial matters. And it is also common for the spouse with the information to delay, avoid, or even refuse to divulge such information to the other spouse. In the discovery process, a formal request can be made for any or all financial information.

In the fourth step, custody and financial issues are discussed and this is where having a divorce attorney will really help. The lawyer will ensure that the rights of the client are protected. In the fifth step, each spouse will decide on whether to settle on a good compromise or continue fighting. The sixth and final step is to submit to the court whatever settlement has been decided and the court will provide approval. However, if there is no agreement to settle, the case will proceed to the trial proper.

Those who are interested in getting the services of an Eagan divorce lawyer may want to visit the Amundson Law Office website, or contact them on the phone, or via email.
