July 21, 2020

July 21, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Projects by Design, providing the Best Agile Training Courses in Bluffton, SC, is now offering live online courses to prepare for the Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM) examination.

CAPM is a five-year certification from the globally-recognized standard in project management, the Project Management Institute (PMI). This certificate is uniquely designed for people who want to learn about the integral components utilized by project managers. This certification also gives anyone instant recognition and credibility.

The CAPM certification can help anyone bring a new job, a new promotion, or a new outlook. This certification is also perfect for people who want to change careers, enhance their resume from school, or become more effective project leaders.

To get the certificate, the PMI requires 23 hours of project management course instruction based on the Project Management Body of Knowledge and a high school diploma. The next CAMP examination will take place on January 2, 2021.

To help aspiring project managers get this prestigious certificate, the Best Agile Training Provider in Bluffton, SC will be starting its online preparatory course for the CAPM.

Projects by Design delivers the CAPM course with live instruction at a preferred schedule by the enrollees. They have daytime, nighttime and weekend schedules starting this July until October of this year.

Our state of the art learning system makes an online course feel like you're in the classroom. You'll receive multiple resources to use to further your study to prepare you for the exam and course downloads provide a wealth of knowledge to help you along the way. We will take this journey with you, the company assures.

By enrolling in the course, aspiring team managers get a full-length instructor-led virtual training through the Projects by Design's state of the art learning system. Students also get access to videos and course downloads for one year from starting the course. Clients also get personalized coaching for their specific goals.

With their 40 years of professional training experience, the course offered by Projects by Design is also considered the most reasonably-priced in the industry.
