

Moseler Perkins Group Expands in Dallas, Texas

July 30, 2020

July 30, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Savannah-based Moseler Perkins Group has announced that it is expanding its home buying business in the fast-growing city of Dallas, Texas.

The locally-owned and operated small business is the number one solution for anyone who wants to sell their house in the Savannah area, and now in Dallas. The company chose Dallas as its new location for the city's attractive economy and growing population. The modern metropolis is now home to over 1.34 million people. Likewise, more international corporations are also moving their headquarters in Texas City.

Moseler Perkins Group says that, despite the numerous developments in Dallas over the years, the average home price in Dallas remains lower than the national average. Apart from attractive home prices, Dallas is also considered one of the safest cities in the United States. On top of that, the median household income in Dallas is more than $350,000 per year.

These are the factors that pushed the owners of Moseler Perkins Group to expand its operation in Dallas. Owners Joshua Moseler and Matthew Perkins said they hope to bring their expertise in buying and selling houses to the people of Dallas.

The Moseler Perkins Group says that their extensive knowledge of the Dallas marketplace will give them the edge to sell homes faster. They have a vast understanding of the economics of the region and knowledgeable on real estate trends as well as the best way to sell a house.

?We are a caring, helpful company that works with families in need, and unlike many franchise companies that look at the numbers and not the people. Our mission is to assist those who have found themselves in a difficult situation with a property that they no longer want or need,? the company noted.

Moseler Perkins Group purchases real estate in any condition and has the team and resources in place to improve the most distressed houses. They buy single-family homes, multi-family homes, apartment buildings, condos, and even commercial properties.

Above all, Moseler Perkins Group pays cash for houses without the hassle or stress of using commissioned agents or out-of-town property flippers. With their resources, they can close most houses in as little as ten days.

?We understand that there are numerous reasons why someone may need or want to sell their home for cash quickly. Regardless of the situation, we would like toward the solution,? they added.

Meanwhile, Moseler Perkins Group says that clients won?t need to sign a contract that binds them to an agent for a specific term. Clients also don?t need to spend money on cleaning or fixups too. Likewise, the professionals of the home selling business also assure full transparency and integrity with every transaction.
