Karolina Blaszkiewicz, a feminine confidence and love coach, energy and sexual healer, and spiritual teacher based in Tallinn, Estonia, announces her program for women designed to help them get the man they want, not the man they usually get, without compromising who they are. The program is made up of healing sessions where the participants release the old stories about men, love, relationships, and themselves. During these sessions, Karolina Blaszkiewicz teaches practical and spiritual tools that allow women to step into higher vibrations to open up new possibilities. More about this program can be gleaned from https://karolinablaszkiewicz.com/courses/8wp-gtmyw/.

Karolina Blaszkiewicz says, ?My name is Karolina Blaszkiewicz, and I help women to transform their lives and relationships. Today, I'd like to offer you an opportunity to join a select group of women who are committed to reaffirming their right to be full of passion, happy, and fulfilled in life with a loving, trustworthy man by their side.?

She continues, ?My goal with this course is to help more women more quickly. I don't want to make the price an obstacle. I've spent thousands of dollars and hours studying, traveling, and learning from inspiring teachers, reading, doing courses, and working with women from all over the world. The techniques and insights I'll be sharing with you during this course are virtually priceless. In truth, you can't put a price on happiness.?

She points out that the program is for various kinds of women. These include: single women who desire to attract the man they really want and not just the man they usually get; women who desire to enhance and grow their relationship; open-minded women who desire to make use of their feminine energy and get to experience more flow in their daily lives; women who desire to feel more attractive, feminine and confident, both sexually and intellectually; women who desire to love and trust themselves sufficiently to become open to falling in love once more; and women who realize that they need to invest in themselves in order to heal, grow, transform, and thrive again.

Meanwhile, in a new blog post at https://karolinablaszkiewicz.com/dating-and-relationships/do-you-reject-before-you-get-rejected-how-to-attract-love-into-your-life/, Karolina Blaszkiewicz gives advice to women who are struggling to find love because they are unknowingly sabotaging their relationship during the dating phase by pushing people away. She points out that some women do that because they feel as if they?re not worth the other person?s time or they?re not good enough for the other person. This indicates low self-worth and low self-esteem, which may have been the result of other mental health issues, such as depression and anxiety.

Karolina Blaszkiewicz points that this low self-worth or self-esteem may result in women feeling scared of opening up to another person. During dating, they may try to find flaws in the other person when the relationship appears to be developing into something more serious. Some may be afraid of commitment because of the possibility of being stuck in a wrong relationship. Some may even be afraid of intimacy and or they are simply afraid of falling in love again.

She advises women who tend to push people away to ask themselves if they are really ready for a relationship. If they discover that the answer to the question is in the negative, it is time for them to get healed and reflect on what they really want from life. Such is the purpose of the program being offered by Karolina Blaszkiewicz. It is designed to help women become ready to live their life as a confident and free woman, who truly deserves a lot of love and abundance.

Those who have tried the program have mostly positive things to say about it. For instance, Adele K. says, ?I have been working with Karolina for a few months and every single time she has been able to help me pinpoint blocks that I wasn?t aware of. She helped me to clear many blocks that were holding me back in my life. My life is so much better now. I am truly grateful to have her in my life and highly recommend working with her.?
