

Erie International Shipping Store Shares Industry Updates to DHL Packaging

July 31, 2020

July 31, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Erie, PA ? Worldwide shipping giant, DHL, has recently released a Trend Report detailing their plan to reimagine shipping in the next few years. To keep up with the ever-changing demands of the shipping and mailing industry, DHL is working to recognize areas of improvement and adopt new packaging optimization techniques to stay on top of customer demands. With new advancements in green technology, streamlining the packaging process while creating minimal waste is key. An Erie international shipping store, Erie Pack & Ship LLC, is working to ensure that the residents and businesses of their community are informed of any updates within their industry.

On average, DHL ships an estimated two million packages each day worldwide. As this number continues to increase each year, DHL has begun looking into ways to improve packaging techniques. In a recent Trend Report that offers a comprehensive look at the future of packaging, DHL discusses how the optimization of packaging could significantly boost the company's productivity, efficiency, and overall customer satisfaction. With the demand for sustainable packaging only set to increase, finding a balance between durability, the use of green materials, and aesthetically pleasing packaging, all while maintaining a reasonable spend on these materials is crucial. Additionally, incorporating smart packaging technology such as smart labels or tags can help improve customer satisfaction by providing accurate updates on package condition and location.
