

Simply Charmed Releases Jewelry Tray Collection on Amazon

August 19, 2020

August 19, 2020 -
Simply Charmed sells jewelry trays on Amazon. This was announced recently by the company as they made available a collection of 15 different jewelry trays or trinket dishes on Amazon.com. This new collection was totally designed in-house and contains some fun sayings in them that make them appropriate as sister gifts, gifts for mom, aunts, grandmothers, and more. Some of them also have messages that may be appropriate as anniversary gifts, such as ?Love you more? and ?I still do.? And finally, there is also a great choice for nostalgic sports fans ? G.O.A.T., which stands for Greatest of All Time.

Megan Buller, a spokesperson for Simply Charmed, says, ?With the holidays approaching, Simply Charmed wanted to create a sentimental, meaningful gift line - in some ways the jewelry dish is almost like a greeting card, but lasts forever. After this chaotic year, sending a loving or fun sentiment will be on everyone's minds.?

The trinket trays from Simply Charmed are approximately 4" square, which is perfect for a small bedside table, or in a washroom or near the kitchen sink for removal and storage of rings. Each tray has been provided with an 18k gold glaze trim around the edge, giving it an elegant look and feel. Furthermore, all aspects of the dish are food safe, making them a good tea bag holder or for a snack such as nuts or pretzels.

When Simply Charmed releases new gift line on Amazon, such as these trinket trays, they ensure that these items have sentimental value for both giver and recipient. One example is the ceramic trinket tray with the single-word message ?Blessed.? It is intended to remind the recipient, who may be a mom, dad, uncle, aunt, grandparent, or child, of all the blessings in their life. It can be a gift for various occasions, including Christmas, and the recipient will surely cherish it as a thoughtful gift that is just the right size for putting on a bedside table, vanity, or near a basin, for the purpose of holding rings and other trinkets. The important benefit is that the recipient will always be reminded of the giver, when using it.

Another example, is a specific message for mothers. Children can make their moms happy by giving this trinket tray with the message, ?Love you Mom with all my heart.? This is an appropriate birthday gift for moms, or for other occasions, including Christmas. Once again, it is a sentimental gift that serves just like a birthday card or Christmas card for mom.

Of course, there are specific messages for other members of the family. These include ?Best grandma ever,? ?Always my sister, forever my friend,? and ?Best aunt ever.? There are also messages in Spanish, such as, ?Te quiero mama? and ?Amo mi abuela.?

And for spouses and those with intimate relationships, they can send trinket trays with messages like ?I still do? and ?Love you more.? For best friends, messages on the trinket trays, include ?I?ll be there for you? and ?You?re my person.?

Also available from Simply Charmed are magnetic wine glass charms, which can also be used as gifts. These are also known as wine glass markers or cocktail identifiers and can be used to identify a particular wine glass and its contents. Or it can simply be used for fun. Each magnetic wine glass charm is actually made of two parts: one is a rare-earth magnet that is glued to the charm and the other part is placed inside the glass, thus holding the charm in place through magnetic attraction. They can be safely used because they won?t come off until they are purposely taken off.

The wine glass charms are available in various shapes. These include turtles, mermaids, flamingos, a set of things usually found on the seashore, a set of items often used when enjoying the sun, camping wine glass charms, ocean treasures and under the sea charms, garden delights, slice of summer charms, bunnies and tulips, and flip flops.

Those who would like to know more about the gift items like the jewelry trays or trinket dishes may want to check out their page on Amazon.com or call them on the phone, or contact them through email.
