August 24, 2020 -
MoldStar Remediation, Atlanta?s first choice mold remediation company, has announced a new blog post. The post gives an indepth look at what homeowners should do if their crawlspace is infested with toxic mold. The article is titled "What to Do If I Have Mold in My Atlanta Crawlspace" and is now available in the blog resources section of the website. "What to Do If I Have Mold in My Atlanta Crawlspace" can be viewed by clicking here.

As an expert in mold removal and cleanup in Atlanta, MoldStar Remediation stands out from the crowd when compared to other mold and restoration companies in the area in a number of ways. With certifications in Water Damage Restoration and Applied Microbial Remediation through IICRC, the industry?s premier indoor environmental accreditation body, Jeremy brings a knowledge and approach that very few mold experts in Atlanta can match. Jeremy also holds a certification as a Certified Microbial Consultant through ACAC, American Council for Accredited Certification.

Having had his own bout with toxic mold nearly two decades ago, Jeremy has made it his life?s mission to educate Atlanta homeowners on the health effects of mold exposure. MoldStar Remediation is committed to continually updating their blog / resource section with the most up-to date information and guidelines. For those interested in learning more about Jeremy and his experience with toxic mold cleanup his website can be found at www.MoldStarRemediaiton.com and their previous press releases can be found here.

Homeowners located within Atlanta, Sandy Springs, Roswell, Marietta, or other surrounding Metro Atlanta areas suffering from toxic mold exposure are invited to speak with the MoldStar Remediation team to schedule a free consultation.

Real Estate Agents, Plumbers, Home Inspectors, and other local service businesses or licensed tradesmen or tradeswomen are invited to reach out to the MoldStar team to be featured on the resources page.
