Miami, FL ? Awards Trophy World is a store known for selling promotional merchandise in Miami, FL. As schools begin to open across the country, the company is highlighting school spirit class masks with any school logo, as a way for kids, faculty, and staff to show their school spirit and stay safe and healthy during the school year.

Customers can order online easily by first selecting their school via the optimized search bar. Next, customers can select a customized design, and finally, they can select sizes per grade. Awards Trophy World does require 50 masks minimum for orders.

Awards Trophy World has created customized sizing based on grade level providing the best fit for each child no matter their age. The masks are made according to CDC guidelines providing 3-ply protection and include performance fabric, which keeps kids cool and dry. Awards Trophy World has gone above and beyond to create the best possible masks for children with anti-chafe fabric, which holds securely without rubbing and provides full coverage protection no matter their size.

The school spirit class masks cost $9.99 per mask for custom orders and $3.99 per mask for solid designs. These masks are a great option for employee appreciation gifts in Miami, FL as teachers return to the frontlines during the pandemic. The customize option provides three logo placement choices and six color design options. When ordering, customers can either use their mascot name or upload the school logo.

Awards Trophy World has been a trusted source for trophies, plaques, promotional products, and much more in the Miami area since 1959. The company is locally owned and operated and specializes in providing quality products at competitive prices. Awards Trophy World provides exceptional customer service and knowledgeable staff.
