August 31, 2020 -

Legends Garage Door LLC, an Arizona based garage door repair company, has hired two new employees in an effort to increase workplace efficiency and to better serve its clients. The increase in manpower is in line with its aim to become the foremost garage door company in Arizona. The two new hires, Breanna Monroe and Taylor Webb, have been given key administrative roles in the company. Breanna Monroe has been appointed as an assistant in the installations department. Taylor Webb has been appointed as the general manager's assistant for scheduling.

Melissa Hagen, one of the owners of the company, said about the two new hires, ?We want to serve our customers in the best way possible. Hiring these two new employees has allowed us to be better organized and to run our office, the scheduling of our customers? installations, and repair work much more efficiently. All of our efforts are focused on making the experience of buying and installing a garage door with us, as painless and seamless as possible. Our end goal is to be the best garage door company in the state of Arizona. Our new team members are going to help us achieve that.?

Legends Garage Door LLC has been operational for over 14 years. It has an A+ rating from the Better Business Bureau (BBB) and an A rating from Angie?s List. The company also has a 5-star customer rating on BBB. It has a rating of 4.8 on its Google Business listing. The company provides garage door installation, repairs, and new parts. The company also offers emergency services as well as regular scheduled maintenance and inspection services. It serves the areas of Glendale, Peoria, Surprise, Sun City, Scottsdale, Avondale, Tempe, and the rest of the Phoenix AZ metro area. The company is licensed, bonded, and insured.

The company is well equipped with the expertise and the inventory to operate on garage doors from brands such as Liftmaster, Craftsman, Chamberlain, Genie, Overhead Door, and Wayne Dalton. It is also the only licensed dealer in Phoenix, AZ to sell Pella garage doors. The company?s technicians are capable of inspecting and fixing problems in garage doors such as off-track alignments and faulty rollers, trolleys, gears, sprockets, or springs. The company is also able to carry out panel repair and panel replacement. The company offers free garage door estimates for new installations. The company also offers financing options through its partnership with Synchrony Home Financing to those who need it.

When asked about the company?s vision, Melissa says, ?We want to become the go-to repair company for all Arizona garage doors. We want to achieve that by delivering honest and exemplary customer service. Our mission is to provide an environment for our team that reflects our culture, employee development, and integrity. We offer the best prices along with highly skilled and courteous professionals. Our employees are put through the strictest background checks. We offer a 100% guarantee on parts and repairs because we understand its importance in building trust. We won?t recommend any services that the customer doesn?t need. If we can repair a garage door without the need for any new parts, we do so. We place the customer front and center. This obsession for customer service and quality has served us well so far.?

The company?s website has a blog and a photo gallery that are regularly updated with informative articles and pictures that serve to educate potential customers about the company?s range of services. The website also has a garage door visualizer that allows customers to get a preemptive mental view of the finished product. The website also has a contact form that can be used to leave the company a message. The company can also be reached at its email id - info@legendsgaragedoor.com. Customers who prefer a phone conversation can reach the company at +1-623-466-3699. The company?s showroom is located at 2501 W Behrend Dr, Suite B-27, Phoenix, AZ 85027. Though the showroom is closed due to COVID-19, they are still taking service and estimation calls.
