Professional Painters of Hilton Head Advances Online Services To Cater To Commercial, Residential Clients

August 31, 2020

August 31, 2020 -
Professional Painters of Hilton Head brings innovative solutions to cater customers in Hilton Head and Bluffton, South Carolina, during this pandemic.

The Best Bluffton Residential and Commercial Painting Services Provider offers free online quotations and arranges virtual presentations for every client. Professional Painters of Hilton Head says this is their way of contributing to their clients' peace of mind during this uncertain time. "We look forward to providing you with the best painting experience without compromising everyone's health and safety," the company states.

Professional Painters of Hilton Head continue to specialize in commercial painting, focusing more on businesses or commercial properties such as apartment buildings, restaurants, and shopping malls. These paint jobs are on a much bigger scale than residential painting, which means that they offer a wider range of painting services. These may include epoxy flooring, faux-finishing, sandblasting, etc. They also require more people on the project to ensure that it is done faster so as not to affect business hours.

The Best Painting Contractor in Hilton Head Island, SC, has extensive experience with a range of materials, including stucco, concrete, metal, and all of the typical materials used for commercial properties. With this, the painting expert can handle any commercial work. Since commercial painting jobs also require more complex planning and workforce than a residential painting job, Professional Painters of Hilton Head assures that they have enough manpower to meet demands.

Professional Painters of Hilton Head is also prepared with enough people, materials, and equipment to work around the business' schedule and finish the job in record time.

"We make certain that we combine the industry's best paint with our passion for detail to exceed your expectations. We assure you that we will be around your busy schedule and consult with you on all aspects of color selection and color coordination for your project to ensure that it is completed according to your preferences. Big or small, we have you covered. We are your best choice for commercial and residential painting," the company states.

The professional painters from Bluffton, SC, have been in the painting business for more than 14 years. Besides commercial painting, they also cater to residential painting, interior painting, exterior painting, and kitchen cabinet painting jobs.

For any full interior or exterior repainting service, clients get a 15% discount right away. They also provide rebates to senior citizens, teachers, police officers, and active military.
