London, UK ? Jacobs The Jeweller in Reading has published an article talking about selecting jewellery as a Christmas present. Summer is over and it's only a few months until Christmas. When it comes to gift giving, many will say the best things come in small packages. So, for those who are helping Santa out this year with those precious little packages, Jacobs The Jewellers (www.jacobsthejewellers.com) has just published a new blog post entitled 'Trust Reading Jewellers for Exquisite Pieces of Holiday Gift Items' to help with all of the particulars.

The article discusses things those helpers will need to know such as how they've extended their hours to be open will be open 7 days a week beginning December 1st and ending on December 24th. Those helpers can rest assured of getting quality price and service on their pieces as Reading is an award-winning retailer in the Berkshire, including the Reading Independent Retailer of the Year award.

Extended hours aren't all that holiday shoppers can be assured of when shopping for jewellery at Reading Jewellers. According to the article, Reading Jewellers will be featuring a wider range of watches, jewellery and exquisite gift items for clients to choose from. They carry many of the most well-known designers such as Buglari, Tag HeuerHeuer, and Cartier as well as their own designs.

?A watch is a sophisticated gift choice,? stated the blog's author. ?A timepiece is often passed down through a family. Many carry inscriptions of endearment or congratulations. When looking for a timeless gift, a watch is often an elegant choice.?
