White Plains, New York based Maserati of White Plains is pleased to announce that the Maserati Levante is now back in inventory after a brief shortage.

"We just wanted to take this opportunity to let our distinguished clientele know that our Maserati Levante inventory for sale and lease is now fully stocked up once again," states Leonardo Didonna of Maserati of White Plains. He adds, "The Maserati Levante has gained significant popularity with our clients ever since the pandemic started, which led to the temporary shortage.?"

The local car dealership states that the Maserati Levante is one of the finest SUVs that they have available at the moment. It is most popular among those who want a vehicle that is both aesthetically pleasing and comfortable ? without making any compromises in performance or safety. The Maserati Levante brings a new meaning to the word elegance, redefining it with the perfect mix of performance-engineered power, seductive styling and balanced handling.

Some of the key features of the Maserati Levante include a carefully crafted Italian interior that showcases the lavish expertise and skill of Maserati's artisans. This attention to detail extends to all aspects of the Maserati Levante.

Performance-wise, the Maserati Levante features a great amount of raw power, packed with a 3.0L twin-turbo V6 engine that delivers 345 horsepower, 369 lb-ft of torque, 156 MPH top speed and 5.8 second 0-60 time. This places it among the top-performing SUVs on the market, managing to keep up with even with other, more performance-focused, vehicles.

The performance of the Maserati Levante is complemented by outstanding handling and control. The SUV counts on the stability of Maserati Q4 intelligent all-wheel drive, maintains its refined composure even when the going gets tough. Additionally, every Levante has an additional Driver Assistance Package that equips every vehicle with a range of Advanced Driving Assistance Systems, offering greater peace of mind whether one is driving through an empty road or dashing through the city.

The Maserati of White Plains website compares the Levante model against another of the most popular SUVs at the same price range: the BMW X5. They state that when it comes to the Levante vs BMW X5, the Maserati comes out on top in almost every aspect, including power and luxury. While the Levante features 345 horsepower, 369lb-ft of torque and a full leather interior, the BMW falls short at 335hp, 330 lb-ft and optional leather interior.

"While the choice ultimately comes down to your preferences, the truth is that you cannot go wrong when choosing a vehicle with such quality craftsmanship," states Didonna. "The Maserati Levante is not only beautiful, it also requires less servicing and ensures a fantastic drive on every landscape.
