September 16, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Columbus, Ohio has had a really bad year with pests. There has been a very unusual number of new infestations. Multiple pest professionals think that this is because pests are becoming immune to everyday treatments like over the counter products and various DIY methods. Thankfully, Premier Columbus Bed Bug Exterminators is here to help. They are the newest pest control company in the area and have already made a name for themselves. They have received a ton of high star reviews online and their services are known to be premium. Their treatments guarantee long lasting protection at an affordable price.

The company has a team of ten professionally trained pest exterminators who know how to treat any and every species of pest in Ohio and the surrounding states. They are prepared for any pest problem that they might be faced with. Their team is very friendly and helpful and their customer service is top notch. It is easy to tell that they truly want to help the community stay safe and clean from any pests. Pests can damage properties and spread diseases and bacteria so if people think they have a pest infestation they should try giving Premier Columbus Bed Bug Exterminators a call today.

They offer three main pest solutions. Their first service is their custom pest control treatments. These are great because they are more reliable, and affordable, than any other pest control options in the area. The company is able to do this by custom engineering each treatment for the individual species of pest it is meant to treat. They offer no general treatments and no two solutions are the same. The president of the company explained more, "We understand the importance of reliable services without breaking the bank. That is why we designed our custom treatments. We are able to control any infestation quickly and effectively by every necessary means possible. By doing this we don't waste supplies and we guarantee long lasting protection at a fraction of the price of our competitors."

They answer quickly to emergency calls because their main concern when performing any pest control is safety. If people are caught face to face with a dangerous animal or pest they should contact Premier Columbus Bed Bug Exterminators by phone or on their website at <http://bedbugscolumbus.net/> immediately.

They would be more than happy to help handle any dangerous situation because they know the importance of keeping local families safe.

Finally, their routine, scheduled checkups are nice for when people are wanting to prevent pest infestations from ever happening in the first place. Their team of exterminators will help schedule routine checkups monthly, quarterly, biannually, or annually. They will then go to the target property and perform all of the necessary prevention steps to make sure that the property is safe from pest invasions in the future. They are very flexible with their scheduling and do not require a contract.

The company has a lot of great reviews so if people think they have a problem they should contact Premier Columbus Bed Bug Exterminators today. Their hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays. They are closed on Sundays. An employee at the company said, "Pest infestations are very dangerous. They spread diseases and bacteria and can cause damage to the property they are invading. If people think they have a pest problem they shouldn't hesitate to contact a professional right away."
